

Kootenay Native Plant Society presents

TASTE THE WILD

a camas conservation & celebration gala evening

Wild Foods Dinner

featuring venison stew, slow-baked camas, and whipped soopolallie, among other tasty wild edibles

Special Presentations

Cultural Teachings of Camas Prasát (Shelly Boyd), Arrow Lakes Aboriginal Facilitator, Colville Confederated Tribes

i? squix^wcut (The Indian Way): Traditional Plant Foods in the Nsəlxcin Language S̀włck^w (Monique Bourgeau), Stxcin, Keshtèlí, Sk^wəlkẁelusqən, Sors, and Silx^wa Spu?ús from the Inchelium Language and Culture Association, WA

Roots of Landscape: Celebrating the First Six Years of the Kootenay Camas Project Dr. Brenda Beckwith, Kootenay Native Plant Society President

Silent Auction

January 27, 2018

doors open at 5:30 pm

Nelson Rod & Gun Club

801 Railway Street, Nelson, BC

All proceeds to support the Camas Conservation Area in Millennium Park, Castlegar.

Purchase Tickets $60/person taste-the-wild.eventbrite.com

More Information & full menu

kootenaynativeplants.ca

Thank you to our sponsors!

